Kiss nd Wed. 11-

O "Kiss and LSO" is often said, Not often we ud kiss-It should not to the dullest head To find what ere amiss?

If kiss and wed half that's said,

If love no further goes, If when its happy summer's fiel The bloom is off its rose-

It seems to me 'twould better be To choose a thriftier flower-And there's the steadiest apple-tree,

In spring a rosy bower! But O its hours of lovely flowers

Are but the prelude sweet: Its summer's but the trysting-time When love and beauty meet.

And what more worthy close could be To its consistent rhyme, Than when the fruit hange ripening In golden autumn-time?

Then let love be like this good tree; The best keep for the last: Say, "Wed and Kiss," and you'll not miss The key that holds bim fast. -Howard Glyndon in Baldwin's Monthly, Funny Sights.

I saw a cow-hide in the grass, A rush-light on the floor; I saw a candle-stick in mud. And a bell-punch at the door

I saw a horse-fly up the creek, A cat-nip at her food; I saw a chestnut burr, and heard A shell-bark in the wood. I saw a jack-plane off a board,

A car-spring off the track. I saw-dust off the floor, And then a carpet tack. I saw a monkey-wrench a hat From a fair lady's pate;

I saw a rattle-snake a bird, And hogs-heads on the plate. I saw a brandy-smash a glass, I saw a shooting star, I heard the corn-stalk in the field

And pig-iron crow bar. I saw a pin-wheel off a post, And wheel-wright in a shop, I saw gin-sling up on a bar

I saw a ginger-pop. I saw a house-fly over a field, I saw an ox-roast too: I saw a shad-roe and a clam bake, And saw a chicken-stew. I saw a sword-fish from a bank,

I heard the water-spout;

And then I went away.

I saw tobacco-spit, and then I heard an eye-bawl out, I saw a fence-rail at the din. I heard a waist-band play A lovely strain-a sweet spit-toon-

A gentleman recently about to pay his doctor's bill said; "Well, doctor, as my little boy gave the measles to all my neighbors' children, and as they were attended by you, I think you can afford, at the very least, to deduct ten percentum of the negotiation of Loans, Conveyancing, Collecting, etc. ar Money to Loan on Mortgage.—OFFICE. 137 Fort Street, over Billingham & Co's, florolalu Hawalian 1478 79 6m from the amount of my bill for the increase of business we gave you."

A boy's mind looks at everything from the stand-point of base-ball and marbles. "Why do you suppose," said a Sunday-school teacher to his class, "why do you suppose they took Stephen outside the city wall when they stoned him!" It was a poser, but one of the aspiring youths was equal to the emergency. He said : It was so they could get a better crack at him,

One of Henry Fox's jokes was that played off on the late Mrs.—, who had a great fondness for making acquaintance of foreigners. He first forged a letter of recommendation to her in favor of a German nobleman, the Baron von Sedlitz Powdertz, whose card was left at her door, and for whom a dinner was immediataly planned by Mrs .- , and an invitation sent in form. After waiting considerable time, no baron appearing, the dinner was served; but during the second course, a note was brought to the lady of the house, with excuses from the baron, who was unexpectedly prevented from coming by the sudden death of his aunt, the Duchess von Epsom Saltz, which she read out to the company without any picion of the joke, and to the entertainment of her guests, among whom was the facetious

THEO. II. DAVIES, Agent. M. J. ROSE,

no newspaper man or reporter having said one word in rega-to it, I shall, therefore, blow my own horn. It is only recent that Carriages has become so common that almost every hous that Carriages has become so common that almost every householder has got one.

IN THE SCRIPTURES, Carriages or Charlots are frequently alluded to. Upon the flight of the Israelites from Egypt, King Pharach pursued them with Six Hundred Charlots, all of which were swallowed up by the waters of the Red Sea.
And when Israel made up his mind to pay his son Joseph a visit, Joseph telegraphed the old gentleman to come down to Goshen and he would meet him there and drive him down to Egypt in a Jaggon, (wagon.)
Charlots and Carriages were mostly used by Kings and Grandees on state occasions.

The Greeks and Romans had Charlots; but strangs to say, it was as late as the sixteenth century, in 1550, that Carriages were introduced into France, and at that date only three were known in Paris, then quite a large city.
